

CIRCULAR NO. 05/2011

Sub: Motor Vehicles Department-Reservation of Registration mark-Officewise
Reservation of range-Orders issued-reg

Ref: G.O.(P) No.3/2011/Tran dated 25-01-2011

As per Rule 95(4) of the Kerala Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989, which was amended vide reference cited and published vide SRO. NO. 77/2011, reservation of registration mark may be made from among the unallotted registration marks in a block of registration marks as may be assigned to each Regional Transport Office/Sub Regional Transport Office for a period of one week each, having regard to the quantum of registration in each office and also from any of the unallotted numbers pending from previous weeks. Based on the average number of vehicles registered in a week during the year, 2010, the range of number allotted to each office is appended to this circular. The range is fixed for a week. The range of numbers for succeeding weeks shall start from the number next to the last allotted number of the last working day of the preceding week. But the applicant cannot reserve a number which is already allotted even though it is within the range.

The applicant can reserve any unallotted number within the range. Any fancy number, which remains unallotted during preceding week/weeks or lapsed number in the running series is also open for reservation for a week. Any number, which stands unallotted during the week including the number which is already booked in that week can also be reserved.

The range of number appended to this circular will come into effect from 01-03-2011 and the same will be valid until further orders. Receipt of the Circular shall be acknowledged.
